Headline:
A return to less cold but unsettled weather this week.

Today:
A frosty start with icy stretches, then a mainly dry day, but cold and often sunny. An isolated wintry shower is possible, mainly over the Pennines. Breezy over hills but lighter winds further east. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy over the Pennines with further wintry showers. Drier further east with long clear spells. A sharp frost is likely everywhere with icy stretches over untreated surfaces. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Tuesday:
It will be a frosty, dry, bright start on Tuesday. Turning cloudy through the morning with rain during the afternoon, wintry on hills. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Less cold, with periods of rain, heavy in places overnight Wednesday into Thursday and again on Friday. Windy at times.
